

Addleshaw Goddard has offices located in Doha, Dubai, Hong Kong, Leeds, London, Manchester, Muscat and Singapore; a strategic alliance with Hashidate Law Office in Tokyo; and a network of Preferred Firms covering all major jurisdictions and regions, in particular Europe, North America, Sub-Saharan Africa, Brazil, India and China.

We have over 170 partners, more than 540 other fee earners, almost 70 trainees – totalling around 1,200 collectively.

We ranked 7th in the UK according to the number of FTSE 100 Clients. In The Legal 500 and Chambers, we have 39 and 33 practice areas ranked in the top tier across the UK, respectively.

We currently have one opening in the following role:

IPO Assistant (full time)

Candidates who studied in law (whether in Hong Kong or PRC), accounting, economy, finance and any other related fields are welcome to apply.

Due to the job nature, the candidates are expected to work hard and overtime and we do not encourage candidates to study while working. This position is only for candidates who have completed their degree studies. The candidates must have a valid visa to work in Hong Kong if they need one.

The candidates must be available as soon as possible.

Successful candidates will have the opportunity to learn about the Hong Kong capital market and how IPO works.

If you are interested, please send your full CV (English and Chinese) to Mr. Daniel Wan at email address: d.wan@aglaw.com. Our firm's website is www.aglaw.com.