Are you the sort who constantly looks for new adventures?

Do you thrive on change and never shy away from taking the lead?

ING's International Talent Programme (ITP) may just be the career for you!

Be exposed to banking, customised to your needs

The ITP is a 4 year graduate programme delivered in 17 countries across seven dedicated tracks: retail banking, wholesale banking, risk, finance, IT, HR and ops. It gives you comprehensive exposure to the banking industry and allows you to customize the programme to your needs.

Be in the heart of dynamic Asia

The ITP in Asia is focused on the Wholesale Banking track which introduces you to the dynamic, competitive and international corporate banking environment in the region. Giving you a broad base of experience to chart your career as a seasoned banker who truly understands the industry in both Europe and Asia, to fulfill client needs and achieve sustainable results.

Be unique, jump on

Do you have a Bachelor's or Master's degree with a maximum of 2 years work experience? Are you fluent in written and spoken English? More importantly, are you passionate, innovative, think differently and are not afraid to share your perspectives, eager to learn, proactive, able to translate innovative ideas into results, challenge the status quo, have an international mindset and possess strong organization and people skills? If you said yes to the above, you make the cut.

Overview of Function Hiring

Financial Markets, Sales (based in Singapore / Hong Kong) (Ref: FM)

Financial Markets is part of ING Wholesale Banking. It delivers a broad range of products to ING's corporate and institutional client base as well as to other ING businesses including the retail network.

ING's Financial Markets division provides clients access to the major financial markets in developed and emerging countries, with specialists in Debt Capital Markets, Sales and Trading across all asset classes - Foreign Exchange, Rates, Credit, Equity Derivatives and Commodities.

We are looking for an ITP management trainee to join our Singapore / Hong Kong based FM Sales team to cover China related corporates, banks, and non-bank financial institutions. This management trainee will be exposed to and trained in all aspects of financial market instruments, such as currencies, interest rates, credits, and their respective derivatives. Over time, the management trainee will be tasked to create client specific solutions by applying his or her product knowledge as well as understanding of constraints and opportunities that are unique to each client.
