

AbbVie, a leading global biopharmaceutical company, was founded on 1st January 1, 2013. We focus on developing medicines that delivery strong clinical performance, provide benefit to patients, and delivery economic value – particularly where significant need exists in certain disease areas, such as hepatitis C, neuroscience, immunology, oncology, chronic kidney disease and women’s health.

We are looking for the following position :

Pharmacovigilance & Quality Assurance Specialist (PV & QA Specialist) - Contractor (1 – year renewable subject to business justification)

Roles:

- Fulfil the responsibility for the coordination and execution of all aspects of pharmacovigilance (drug safety) and quality assurance, ensure the compliance to internal policy and external regulations.

Requirements:

- Pharmacy or life-sciences degree (or equivalent).
- Previous experience working in the pharmaceutical industry in a drug safety or quality assurance role is preferred but not mandatory, fresh graduate is welcome.
- Excellent written and spoken communication and presentation skills.
- Fluency in written and oral English is essential
- High customer orientation and capability to communicate with technical and non-technical staff
- Strong commitment to compliance with the relevant rules and procedures, and to scientific quality and integrity
- Sound judgment, strong planning and organizational skills, multi-task to work concurrently with numerous stakeholders/projects and in a fast-paced environment and the ability to get things done.
- A good opportunity for graduates who want to start their career in multinational Pharmaceutical Industry

Candidates who are interested, please send CV to abbvie.hr@abbvie.com