

Data & Operations Internship (Paid)

On www.compareretreats.com consumers can easily and quickly compare rates and services of retreats worldwide, judged and ranked by health and fitness professionals only.

We help consumers save time and money by finding the best retreats for their needs, with the vision to become the worlds most trusted portal for health and fitness travellers.

We give the power back to the consumer by increasing wellness education, market transparency and easy access to life-changing retreats.

CompareRetreats.com was recently featured on Asia's most renowned retreat (Como Shambala, Bali).

Join one of the fastest growing, young enterprises in Asia as we revolutionize the wellness travel industry.

The Position

We are recruiting interns who are looking for a fast-track career development in Data & Operations. Our Data & Operations Intern Programme will provide you with hands-on experience to learn, plan, implement and monitor the results all different aspects of operations strategies and campaigns. The successful candidates would be those who have strong interest and passion in Data & Operations and seek a challenging role in a fast-paced environment.

Tasks and Responsibilities:

- Assisting the Channel Manager in planning, implementing and optimizing online site data
- Conducting market research as well as developing an action plan for our marketing campaigns including content writing, SEO and SEM (CPC/CPA) activities, affiliate marketing, comparison shopping.
- Improving and optimising web content for the respective market.
- Planning and implementation of Operations strategy, with responsibility for fulfillment of customer requests and co-ordination with Retreats worldwide to ensure a seamless service

The Qualified Candidate

- Recent graduate of a relevant subject (e.g. media, data systems, economics or operations).
- Fluency in English and/or any other languages would be an advantage.

- Owns strong research and analytical skills and a positive “can do” attitude.
- Ability to work independently, to self-prioritize work streams and to meet tight deadlines.
- Computer literate with an excellent understanding of MS Office suite. Proficiency in WordPress is a plus.

What we offer:

- Exciting opportunities in a fast-growing online business in Hong Kong.
- Extensive training across all E-Marketing activities from our in-house experts.
- Fast career progression for successful candidates.
- Work with some of the best entrepreneurs in the world.
- Great working environment with colleagues from all over the globe.
- Flat hierarchy within an energetic and highly motivated team.
- Challenging and diverse assignments with direct responsibility.

Apply:

Please send an email with your resume, availability and motivation behind your application to dervla.louli@compareretreats.com