The World of Banking & Technology Adoption in 2021

#PositiveImpact

What exactly is banking?
What are the specific roles in banking?
How are banks incorporating the latest technological innovations?

In this 1.5 hour webinar, we will investigate the different divisions within the bank, how they interact, what are the different job roles and also how the industry is embracing new technologies. You will understand in more detail the changing role of banks, the many diverse job opportunities and the latest wave of technological innovations sweeping across the industry.

The World of Banking & Technology Adoption in 2021
Monday 8th February 2021 at 4.00 - 5.30 pm SGT/HKT

If you’re interested in getting a practical overview and insights into banking, register your interest here by 3rd February. Places are limited and by return invite only.