A unique opportunity for graduates interested in developing a career in the performing arts field. Interns will work closely with professional staff in the Performing Arts Division full-time for a period of around six months. They will gain practical and theoretical training in programming, operations as well as technical and productions. This is a paid internship that runs on a recurring basis, with openings every year.

YOU NEED: ▪ To be a graduate with a recognised institution degree or equivalent qualification in the following disciplines relevant to your preferred internship:

For programming interns	Performing arts, social science, arts, cultural or cultural management studies, arts education, publishing, marketing, journalism, communications, language, public affairs, business administration, public administration or related disciplines
For venue operations interns	Event management, hospitality, tourism, performing arts, business or related disciplines
For technical and productions interns	Theatre technical arts, such as stage and event management, technical direction, lighting design and technology, sound design and technology, architecture or project management disciplines

- A strong interest in working professionally in performing arts, performing arts venue operations, tourism and hospitality, theatre planning or stage technical fields;
- A good command of spoken and written English and Cantonese / Mandarin;
- Ideally, some relevant working experience; and
- Good computer skills (AutoCAD) are required for technical and productions interns.

YOU WILL: ▪ Learn about WKCDA Performing Arts facilities and their current development, programming, venue operations, venue design, technical and productions etc.;

- Gain practical and theoretical training in performing arts through active involvement in our on-going projects while working closely with the Performing Arts Division;
- Research topics that will contribute to the development of the Performing Arts facilities and upcoming programmes; and
- Join discussions, talks, performances and other related events.
