

[For 2021 UG Graduates] Banking Talent Programme 2021 (jointly launched by the Hong Kong Monetary Authority (HKMA) and the Banking Industry)

To: All HKU final year undergraduates,

The banner features a red-to-orange gradient background. On the left, the CEDARS logo (a green tree icon) and the text 'cedars Centre of Development and Resources for Students 學生發展及資源中心' are displayed. Next to it is the 'GraduAction' logo in a yellow box. To the right, the text 'Jointly launched by the Hong Kong Monetary Authority (HKMA) and the Banking Industry' is written in a dark font. The main title 'BANKING TALENT PROGRAMME 2021' is in large, bold, black capital letters. Below the title, a bulleted list contains three items: 'For 2021 UG Graduates', '6-month contract and professional training from 1 Sep 2021 to 28 Feb 2022', and 'Application Deadline: refer to job link of each participating firm'. On the right side of the banner, there is an illustration of a hand holding a smartphone, with another hand holding a stack of banknotes, and a piggy bank with gold coins nearby.

cedars
Centre of Development and Resources for Students
學生發展及資源中心

GraduAction

Jointly launched by the Hong Kong Monetary Authority (HKMA) and the Banking Industry

BANKING TALENT PROGRAMME 2021

- For 2021 UG Graduates
- 6-month contract and professional training from 1 Sep 2021 to 28 Feb 2022
- Application Deadline: refer to job link of each participating firm

Banking Talent Programme is an initiative jointly launched by the Hong Kong Monetary Authority (HKMA) and the banking industry to nurture young talents for the industry and provide participants with an opportunity to better prepare for future careers in the banking sector, particularly in times of the current economic situation. Around 450 openings are offered by banks, Stored Value Facilities operators, together with the HKMA. Work opportunities are provided in areas ranging from front-line operations to back-office functions in retail and commercial banking.

The Programme is open for students graduating with a bachelor's degree in 2021. Successful candidates will be offered a six-month contract from 1 September 2021 to 28 February 2022 with a salary of HK$12,000 per month.

In addition, a series of induction seminars organised by the HKMA, in collaboration with the Hong Kong Academy of Finance and the Hong Kong Institute of Bankers (HKIB), as well as industry-specific training courses will be provided to successful candidates under the programme.

You can visit the programme website for more details and apply directly to your desired firms. Deadlines for application vary and some firms will review applications on a rolling basis. Interested students should apply as soon as possible.

Some participating firms welcome student nominations from HKU for the programme, and will give priority to nominated candidates during the selection process. Please stay tuned for our announcement if you want to be considered by CEDARS for nomination to the firms.

Check out GraduAction which is a one-stop hub of career services and resources for graduating students and new graduates to help you prepare and start your career.

For enquiries, please email us at GraduAction@cedars.hku.hk.

Elisa Yu
Senior Student Advising Officer (Careers)
Centre of Development and Resources for Students (CEDARS), HKU
<http://cedars.hku.hk>