

HKU Faculty of Law – Rule of Law Education Project (ROLE)

Student Internship Programme 2020-21

Deadline: 23 October 2020

To all HKU students:

The Rule of Law Education Project (ROLE) (<http://www.role.hku.hk>) invites you to apply for its Student Internship Programme 2020-21.

About ROLE

ROLE is one of the knowledge exchange initiatives of HKU's Faculty of Law, and it aims to be a bridge between legal education and the broader Hong Kong community. ROLE brings together law professors, solicitors, barristers, tertiary and secondary school teachers, social workers, NGO administrators and law students, among others, to create pro bono educational resources related to the rule of law.

Internship Specifics

ROLE is now recruiting student interns for the 2020-21 academic year. During the course of the internship, students will have the opportunity to work with and learn from the ROLE steering committee members, other senior members of the legal profession in Hong Kong, and local social organizations. The ROLE project also provides training on relevant legal theory, concepts, and practical skills. Strong internship performance will be recognized by appropriate reference letters and service certificates.

Intern Requirements

- Fluent English speaking, reading, writing
- Fluent in Cantonese speaking; mastery of writing in Chinese
- Strong interest in understanding and promoting rule of law ideas
- Ability to commit to 5 hours/week during school term time
- Reliable
- Creative
- Flexible regarding in-person vs. remote teaching, depending on COVID guidelines and development in the coming months
- Strong sense of responsibility and personal integrity
- Confident in public speaking
- Available during the summer to teach Hong Kong secondary school students (late June 2021 to mid-July 2021)
- Experience with public affairs, social media, video producing and editing will be advantages

Duties

- Deliver lectures and seminars in secondary schools (*Note: depending on future governmental guidance and developments regarding COVID, delivery of these lectures and seminars may be via Zoom webinars, recorded videos, animations, etc. Students are encouraged to think creatively and flexibly to create materials that are interesting and informative given any relevant constraints on the learning environment or applicable restrictions governing face-to-face meetings.)
- Assist the review of textbooks on rule of law topics
- Develop content (text and/or multimedia) for the above-mentioned lectures and seminars and/or for the ROLE website
- Other duties related to the internship to be determined by the ROLE steering committee

HKU Faculty of Law – Rule of Law Education Project (ROLE)

Duration

November 2020 to mid-July 2021

Application

Interested students should email role.admin@hku.hk with the subject line “ROLE Internship 2020” and include the following:

- Current CV
- Cover letter
- Completed table below:

Name
Curriculum and year (e.g. LLB Year 2)
UID
Phone number
Email address
Name of secondary school attended in HK

Orientation

A mandatory orientation meeting will be held in November 2020, date and time to be announced (duration 1.5 hours)

Deadline to apply

23 October, 2020 (Friday); late applications will not be considered.