2021 Investment Banking Graduate Program Hong Kong, July 2021

Who we are

Nomura is a global financial services group with an integrated global network spanning over 30 countries. By connecting markets East & West, Nomura services the needs of individuals, institutions, corporates and governments through its four business divisions: Retail, Asset Management, Wholesale (Global Markets and Investment Banking), and Merchant Banking. Founded in 1925, the firm is built on a tradition of disciplined entrepreneurship, serving clients with creative solutions and considered thought leadership

About the Program

The Graduate program will commence in July 2021 in our Hong Kong office. Our goal is to help you advance by providing you with significant responsibilities and diverse experience. You will be provided with a structured training and support to develop your career and professional skills. Our intensive development program covers relevant aspects of accounting, modelling, valuation and deal structuring together with essential client skills. The training program ensures that the emphasis is on practical application so that you are able to immediately contribute to our business.

About You

You need to be a final year student who has a keen interest to work in Asia. You have outstanding academic and extra-curricular achievements, and can withstand the rigors of a rapidly changing, demanding but ultimately rewarding environment. You are someone with a personality, has strong quantitative skills and a keen interest in business and finance (though you may not have studied this as a major). Other common traits amongst our team are intelligence, curiosity, diligence, integrity and the willingness and capability to thrive under a challenging environment.

Eligibility

We welcome diversity in our teams and would encourage students from all background and disciplines who are in your final year of study (and be available to commence in July 2021) to apply. Fluency in written and spoken English is required, while additional Asian language skills, particularly Mandarin, will be an excellent value-add.
