Position Title : Editor

Job location : Hong Kong

Position Description

Committed to upholding the firm's reputation for hard-hitting, objective research with an unusual twist, an Editor's critical contribution is to help analysts get their message across loud and clear and ensure financial rigour and brand integrity.

Key Areas of Responsibilities

You will liaise with analysts around the region to copy-edit and sharpen the impact of individual reports; and work with our production team to ensure quality, timeliness and accurate distribution. Strong rewriting and research abilities with a sense of design and sensitivity to corporate image will reinforce your contribution. Enthusiasm for new media and all things web, including email, is essential.

Ad hoc projects will require you to think on your feet and put forward innovative ways to improve the readability, visual appeal and commercial impact of our publications.

Adherence to regulatory and compliance requirements as well as consistency with house style are also critical.

Requirements

- Editorial experience, preferably within a brokerage or in online/print-media journalism
- Exceptional English language skills and a high level of numeracy
- Confidence to offer rewrite suggestions and précis copy with flair
- A keen eye for detail
- A solid team player but self-motivated and able to work independently
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office applications and aptitude in design areas
- A university degree
