

Pathway to success?

Explore the limitless ways you can progress at HSBC

2022 Global Treasury Graduate Programme (Hong Kong) is now open for applications

Whether you're in your final year of your undergraduate or postgraduate Masters studies, we offer a wide range of exciting opportunities for you to start your career with HSBC.

Global Treasury is the global clearing house for HSBC's financial resources. On the Global Treasury Graduate Programme, you will play a valued role in managing the bank's capital, balance sheet, liquidity and funding strategy and forecasting process. Graduates will work alongside our global team of professionals across a number of businesses and entities. You will learn how the bank manages its balance sheet in a range of different market and regulatory environments while developing practical Treasury skills and stakeholder management skills. During your time on the programme, you may work across:

- Markets Treasury – Invests the firm's excess financial resources in a wide range of instruments, including asset- and mortgage-backed securities, government securities and certain derivatives. Markets Treasury also manages the wholesale funding needs of HSBC the Bank;
- Global Liquidity – Proactive focus and advisory on safeguarding and optimising the firm's liquid resources, passing benefits on to the businesses and entities;
- Global Capital – Designing, overseeing and guiding the capital deployment and capital efficiency of HSBC;
- Financial Resource Management – Delivering quantitative models and analytics to support optimal asset and liability management;
- Strategy, Execution and Control – Building the strategic operating model and capabilities needed for Global Treasury to achieve its safeguarding and optimisation objectives

Bring your skills and new ideas to help us improve how we manage capital. We offer an experience to participate in bank-wide strategy initiatives, work collaboratively and challenge yourself across disciplines. We're here to help you open up a world of opportunity.

Apply now for our Global Treasury Graduate Programme – to start from July 2022 onwards: suitable for final year students or those already graduated up to 2 years and are available to work full time
